What if . . .

(introduction or conclusion to the Bible study, pp. 103–104)

1. What if God called you to move your family to serve Him in a country with unclean water, a hard-to-learn language, and terrible poverty?
2. What if He asked you to live in the fourth-largest Muslim nation in the world?
3. What if He told you to live in a country where polio is still a problem, fever can kill, and travel is dangerous”?
