

Paul and Silas Prayed Story Strips

Print copies of this page, one for every person who may come to the meeting.

For each page, cut the strips apart, mix them up, and keep them together with a paper clip. (You will need a set of strips for each person.)

At the meeting, give each person a set of strips. Each person will put the sentences in the order in which they happened. (See Acts 16:1–34.)

The Spirit prevented Paul and Silas from going to Asia.

The Spirit prevented Paul and Silas from going to Bithynia.

Paul had a vision of a man from Macedonia asking for help.
They went to Macedonia.

Lydia and other women were praying by the river in Philippi of Macedonia.

Lydia and everyone living in her house became followers of Jesus.

Paul and Silas were put in jail.

Paul and Silas prayed and sang. The prisoners heard them.

The Philippian jailor became a follower of Jesus.