

Motorcycling to the Hmong Questions

- Where does missionary Mike Rhodes* travel on his motorcycle? (mountain villages)
- What does Mike pray for when he gets on his motorcycle? (a person of peace in the village he is traveling to)
- Why does Mike travel to the mountain villages? (to tell the people in the villages about Jesus)
- When a person becomes a believer, what does Mike teach him about? (baptism, Bible study, prayer, persecution, cults, and being part of a house church)
- When a small group of people in a Hmong village become believers, what does Mike help them do? (start a church)
- What did Mike say at the end of his prayer that made Shane very excited? ("In Jesus' name. Amen.")
- How did Shane first hear about Jesus? (A teacher gave him a Bible written in Chinese.)
- What story did Kelly Rhodes* tell Shane and Penny? (the "Creation to Christ" story)
- What did Baptist Global Response help Shane purchase? (a chicken farm)
- Mike helped Shane work on the chicken farm. While he worked, what did he do? (He talked to everyone about Jesus.)
- While building with Shane's friend Floyd, what did Mike compare Jesus to? (a cornerstone)
- Who came with Mike to help Shane? (church members from the Hmong church in the city)
- How long did Shane and Penny have to travel to get to the Hmong church in the city? (two hours)
- Shane wanted to be baptized. Why couldn't he be baptized in his village? (There was no water on the top of the mountain where he lived.)
- Mike invited Shane to the city to be baptized. What was he baptized in? (a bathtub)
- What did Shane's chicken farm "grow" in addition to chickens? (Christians)

Names have been changed.*