

NEWS FROM SCOTLAND

Put information from “Loving Broken People in Scotland” (pp. 67–68) in the form of two letters—one from Gena Wilson, the other from Dena Odom. Ask two women to read the two letters. They will need to practice this skit.

In the skit, these two friends meet in front of the room. Each has just received a letter from a missionary friend in Glasgow, Scotland. They share with each other the news in their letters. In this way, they give the group information about missions work in Scotland.

When they finish, they will turn to the group and invite participants to pray with them for these missionaries. Pray for the requests given in the article (“Pray for Gena Wilson,” p. 67, and “Pray for the Odoms,” p. 68).
