

I'm
worth it.

What is the most important investment that you can make for the future of missions?

You can invest in the youngest children as they learn to lead a missions lifestyle. That is the primary objective of Mission Friends. Preschoolers, ages birth through Kindergarten, learn about missions, and how to pray for, give to, and do missions. Mission Friends learn that people in all different parts of the world need to hear about God's love. They learn that God can use people of all ages to show His love.

Your gift to the Dixon Endowment is an investment in the future of missions. Your gift will create opportunities for preschoolers to develop a missions heart at an early age.

Because they are worth our investment!
